Sometimes Feels he is not heard in class as she is softly spoken and gets upset at home. Probably needs and assistant in class. Think the class is a bit of a handful with lots of strong characters and bickering.

Would like more update of how he is doing more often than parents evening

.... Is in reception and is extremely happy. There were some teething problems which were dealt with quickly and with so much support. I can't praise all of the teachers enough with their support and encouragement with Christchurch is a great school and my daughter loves coming here. The teachers are brilliant and my daughter has lots of friends and is happy here.

Really grateful for the communication through Parentmail.

.... Loves school and skips in with a smile on her face. School have been an amazing support with family bereavements and also helping with sorting paediatric referral for ADHD.

.... Shows a great want to learn and I believe this is down to the school being so brilliant with her.

I think it is a lovely school and so does my son

I am very happy with how well has settled into school. She is confident, happy and I feel as though she is progressing very well. The support from school is amazing and I feel very happy with what support I get.

..... enjoys school and is doing very well. He is always enthusiastic when talking about school. I love the school values and Christian ethos. I believe it sets children up with good values and a strong support system with their peers – thank you.

Don't think I could have picked a better school for my children

When I had a concern (brought to the teachers attention by another parent(teacher sought me out to 'check in'. Not a school concern but morning and after school provision (external) is not really stimulating.

..... is really happy at Christ Church its been a great school from his first day!

Not long started at the school but is very happy, that's all we can ask for.

I feel like my boy is well looked after at Christchurch. The teachers are all so friendly and very approachable should I have any questions. I love the proud cloud system and the reward assemblies for the children to gain confidence and pride in themselves.

I can come in to school anytime about any issues I have with anything even if they are not about my child.

.... Has had a lot of support over the last few weeks which has been good for her.

Excellent environment for any child to learn and flourish

All teachers are very friendly and approachable

We are extremely pleased with the school

We love and appreciate everything Christchurch does for us all, thank you

Fabulous support for children and parents.

Fabulous

I love Christ Church, the school environment and teachers are very approachable

Been more than happy over the years
